

THE AUSTRALIAN IRISH HERITAGE ASSOCIATION

PRESENTS

THE VERSE

You have watched The Voice on national TV. Now we invite you to THE VERSE – an afternoon of poetry for writers, reciters and listeners. If you have a favourite poem you would like to read (one you may have written or one you want to share) then email your expression of interest to aiha@irishheritage.net by no later than 28 July. No entry fee.

This will be an entertaining afternoon where readers step up to the mic and our MC will ask about the person and the poem. There will be audio visuals and live music by Pavla Walsh on harp and whistle. Readers can vote on favorite poems. It will be pacey and fun and so good for the soul. Cabaret seating.

AIHA acknowledge support of The Irish Theatre Players.

*“O commemorate me where there is water,
Canal water preferably, so stilly
Greeny at the heart of summer. Brother
Commemorate me thus beautifully.”*

*History says, don't hope
On this side of the grave.
But then, once in a lifetime
The longed-for tidal wave
Of justice can rise up,
And hope and history rhyme.*

*So hope for a great sea-change
On the far side of revenge.
Believe that further shore
Is reachable from here.
Believe in miracle
And cures and healing wells.*

Venue Irish Club Theatre, Townshend Road, Subiaco
